

'VE Plus 10' on Most Big Outlets

Post-WTOP Historical TV Review Booked by 81 U. S. Stations Sunday

Eighty-one television stations—in almost every major American city—will telecast the historical documentary program "VE Plus 10" on Sunday. The program originates in Washington from WTOP-TV at 2:30 p.m.

The list of stations was announced yesterday by the Columbia Broadcasting System. A CBS-TV spokesman said he expects more stations to be added before Sunday.

"VE Plus 10" is a non-commercial, one-hour program commemorating the tenth anniversary of Allied victory in Europe.

It is produced by WTOP-TV in cooperation with The Washington Post and Times Herald.

"VE Plus 10" features interviews with diplomats, scientists and military leaders who held key positions in the victory over Hitler. They will take a look backward, over 10 years and interpret the historical significance of VE day.

Philip L. Graham, publisher of The Washington Post and Times Herald, is the program moderator. He will link a series of interviews with President Eisenhower, former President Harry S. Truman, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Gen. Walter Bedell Smith and others.

A CBS-TV spokesman said the 81-station lineup is unusually large for an hour's sustaining program. He said that stations in the Rocky Mountain and Pacific Time Zones were beginning telecasting two and three hours early in order to present the program.

In addition to the leaders, "VE Plus 10" includes an interview with Bill Mauldin, GI cartoonist, and a 10-year-old Washington boy, Mark Berch. Mark was born on VE day.
